Contribution Statement

I am the co-author of the article entitled "A very important scientific achievement", that was published in the Renowned Journal (year of publication 2019, vol. 12, pp. 34-56). My contribution involved the conceptual work on the project, the application of very sophisticated data analysis methods, and the collaboration on the final manuscript editing.

I estimate my total contribution in the preparation of this publication at a 12.34 percent level.
